

Did you know...
Colon Cancer
isn't just a
50+ Disease

March is colon cancer awareness month. However, March 3rd is National Dress in Blue Day which encourages everyone to learn about the causes of colon cancer and raise awareness by wearing blue.

Join us in wearing blue on Friday, March 3rd to show your support!

Please spread the word throughout your community, schools, and workplace and share and post your pictures or messages.